CHAPTER XVI.

The Love of Eating.

In our largest centers of population, such as New York and Chicago, we daily see more and more people turning to the inner man. Cafes and lunch-rooms are filled with men and women who seem to give all their time and attention to thoughts of properly or improperly feeding their stomachs. "It is of course best to eat slowly, but not too much," says Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. In this age of civilization the food in the stomach is not only a source of nourishment, but it is a source of trouble. It is a source of trouble because it is not properly cared for. The stomach must be assisted in its hard work of a good stomach tonic, which should be entirely of vegetable ingredients and without alcohol. After years of experience in active practice, Dr. Pierce discovered a remedy that suited these conditions in a blood-maker and tissue-builder. He called it Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—an alternative extract that assists in the digestion and assimilation of the food in the stomach—so that the blood gets what it needs for food and oxidation, the liver is at the same time started into activity and there is perfect elimination of waste matter. When the blood is pure and rich, all the organs work without effort, and the body is like a perfect machine.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

GOING TO BUILD?

If so, get Nichol's Album of Artistic Dwellings, 125 pages of photographs and plans of moderate homes. Tells how to build them. Postpaid 10 cents. Plans and specifications carefully prepared. Church, school, stores, etc. NICHOLS the Architect Bloomington

The man parleyed a little over the price. "Don't care 't take any less 't day," said David calmly. "No harm done." "How much down?" David named the sum. "An' possession?" "Next week." "Everything as it stan's?" "Everything as it stan's 'cept the beds an' bedding." "Here's some money on account," he said. "We'll close 'morrow?" "Close 'morrow," said David, a little sadness in his tone as he took the money.

It was growing dusk as the man went away. The crickets sang with a loud, accusing clamor. Slowly he turned and went into the dark house, David whistling under his breath. Elizabeth was resting in her chair. She was humming an old hymn as she rocked.

"Sold the farm, mother," said David. She stopped singing, but made no answer. In the dusk as we sat down I saw her face leaning upon her hand. Over the hills and out of the fields around us came many voices—the low chant in the stables, the baying of a hound in the far timber, the cry of the tree toad—a tiny drift of odd things (like that one sees at sea) on the deep eternal silence of the heavens. There was no sound in the room save the low creaking of the rocker in which Elizabeth sat. After all the going and coming and doing and saying of many years here was a little spell of silence, and beyond lay the untold things of the future. For me it was a time of reckoning.

"Been hard at work here all these years, mother," said David. "Oughter be glad to git away."

"Yes," said she sadly. "It's been hard work. Years ago I thought I never could stan' it, but now I've got kind o' used to it."

"Time ye got used 't pleasure an' comfort," he said. "Come kind o' hard at first, but ye mus' try 't stan' it. If we're goin' 't hev such fun in heaven as Deacon Hesper tells on we oughter uv ourselves."

The worst was over. Elizabeth began to laugh. At length a strain of song came out of the distance:

"Maxwellton's braes are bonnie where early falls the dew."

"It's Hope and Uncle Eb," said David, while I went for the lantern. "Wonder what's kep' 'em so late?"

When the lamps were lit the old house seemed suddenly to have got a sense of what had been done. The familiar creak of the stairway as I went to bed had an appeal and a protest. The rude chrono of the voluptuous lady, with red lips and the name of Spring, that had always hung in my chamber had a mournful, accusing look. The stain upon her cheek that had come one day from a little leak in the roof looked now like the path of a tear drop. And when the wind came up in the night and I heard the creaking of lone pine it spoke of the doom of that house and its own that was not far distant.

We rented a new home in town that week and were soon settled in it. Hope went away to resume her studies the same day I began work in college.

Not much in my life at college is essential to this history save the training. The students came mostly from other and remote parts of the north country, some even from other states. Coming largely from towns and cities, they were shorn of those simple and rugged traits that distinguished the men of Faraway and made them worthy of what poor fame this book may afford. In the main they were like other students the world over, I take it, and mostly, as they have shown, capable of winning their own fame. It all seemed very high and mighty and grand to me, especially the names of the courses.

I had my baptism of sophomoreic scorn and many a heated argument over my title to life, liberty and the pursuit of learning. It became necessary to establish it by force of arms, which I did decisively and with a little delay as possible. I took much interest in athletic sports and was soon a good ball player, a boxer of some skill and the best wrestler in college.

In my second year at college Hope went away to continue her studies in New York. She was to live in the family of John Fuller, a friend of David, who had left Faraway years before and made his fortune there in the big city. Her going filled my days with a lingering and pervasive sadness. I saw in it sometimes the shadow of a heavier loss than I dared to contemplate. She had come home once a week from Ogdensburg, and I had always had a letter between times. She was ambitious, and I fancy they let her go so that there should be no danger of any turning aside from the plan of my life or of hers, for they knew our hearts as well as we knew them and possibly better.

We had the parlor to ourselves the evening before she went away, and I read a little love tale I had written especially for that occasion. It gave us some chance to discuss the absorbing and forbidden topic of our lives.

"He's too much afraid of her," she said. "He ought to put his arm about her waist in that love scene."

"Like that," I said, suiting the action to the word.

"About like that," she answered, laughing, "and then he ought to say something very, very nice to her before he proposes—something about his having loved her for so long—you know."

"And how about her?" I asked, my arm still about her waist.

"If she really loves him," Hope answered, "she would put her arms about his neck and lay her head upon his shoulder, so—and then he might say what is in the story." She was smiling now as she looked up at me.

"And kiss her?"

"And kiss her," she whispered—and, let me add, that part of the scene was in novise neglected."

"And when he says, 'Will you wait for me and keep me always in your heart?' what should he say?" I continued.

"Always," she said.

"Hope, this is our own story," I whispered. "Does it need any further correction?"

"It's too short—that's all," she answered as our lips met again.

Just then Uncle Eb opened the door suddenly.

"Tut, tut!" he said, turning quickly about.

"Come in, Uncle Eb," said Hope. "Come right in, we want to see you."

In a moment she had caught him by the arm.

"Don't want 't break up the meetin'," said he, laughing.

"We don't care if you do know," said Hope. "We're not ashamed of it."

"Hain't got no cause 't be," he said. "Go it while ye're young an' full o' vinegar! That's what I say every time. It's the best fun there is. I thought I'd like 't hev ye both come up 't my room for a minute 'fore yer mother an' father come back," he said in a low tone that was almost a whisper.

Then he shut one eye suggestively and beckoned with his head as we followed him up the stairway to the little room in which he slept. He knelt by the bed and pulled out the old skin covered trunk that David Brower had given him soon after we came. He felt a moment for the keyhole, his hand trembling, and then I helped him open the trunk. From under that sacred suit of broadcloth, worn only on the grandest occasions, he fetched a bundle about the size of a man's head. It was tied in a big red handkerchief. We were both sitting on the floor beside him.

"Heft it," he whispered.

I did so and found it heavier than I expected.

"What is it?" I asked.

"Spondoolix," he whispered.

Then he untied the bundle, a close packed board of bank bills with some pieces of gold and silver at the bottom.

"Hain't never hed no use fer it," he said as he drew out a layer of the bills and spread them with trembling fingers. Then he began counting them slowly and carefully.

"There!" he whispered when at length he had counted $100. "There, Hope! Take that an' put it in yer wallet. Might come handy when ye're 'way fr'm hum."

She kissed him tenderly.

"Put it 'n yer wallet an' say nothin'—not a word 't nobody," he said.

Then he counted over a like amount for me.

"Say nothin'," he said, looking up at me over his spectacles.

Father and mother were coming in below stairs, and, hearing them, we helped Uncle Eb tie up his bundle and stow it away. Then we went down to meet them.

Next morning we bade Hope goodby at the cars and returned to our home with a sense of loss that for long lay heavy upon us all.

A CLOUD OF DOUBT

Overhangs Ticklish Naval Situation in the Far Eastern Sea.

NO REPORT OF BATTLE

Rumors of Meeting Between the Adversive Fleets Not Confirmed in Any Quarter.

Doubt Exists in Official Circles as to Whereabouts of Fighting Vessels.

London, April 13.—There is absolutely no confirmation in any quarter of the Batavia telegram to an Amsterdam newspaper declaring that the Russian and Japanese fleets had collided near the Anamba Islands, east of the Malay peninsula. The doubtful nature of the situation is accentuated by the correspondent at Labuan (off the northwest coast of Borneo), of the Daily Mail, who says that reports are current there that large fleets have been sighted south of Borneo.

The Daily Telegram's Tokio correspondent in a comparative statement of the strength of the fighting fleets of Japan and Russia claims that the Japanese have five battleships. The Daily Telegraph considers that this disposes of the rumor that the battleship Yamashiro was sunk by a Russian mine off Dalny in June last.

NEW AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

Mr. Meyer Presents His Credentials to the Czar.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—Ambassador Meyer yesterday afternoon presented his letters of credence to Emperor Nicholas at Tsarskoe-selo. In diplomatic circles the keenest interest is manifested at the first interview between the emperor and the new American ambassador, owing to the widespread belief that President Roosevelt has already allowed the information to be conveyed to both belligerents that he stands ready, upon their mutual request, to undertake the promotion of peace. It is supposed that Mr. Meyer delivered a confidential communication to his majesty from President Roosevelt, but so far as is ascertainable the emperor did not discuss the question of peace with the new ambassador.

The audience lasted ten or fifteen minutes. What passed between the emperor and the ambassador naturally is secret. The occasion marked a notable departure from the custom of the St. Petersburg court since the days of Minister C. R. Breckinridge, Mr. Meyer wearing no uniform, but appearing in the simple evening dress of an American gentleman.

LAWYERS TAKE LEAD

Sentiment in Russia to Be Crystallized by National Movement.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—The formation of a national professional reform league to unite the activities of lawyers, doctors, teachers, engineers and other professional classes of Russia to bring about the democratization of the government and the institution of a representative parliament and a responsible ministry is the ambitious project set on foot by the national congress of lawyers which finished its work here last night. The plan proposed is the formation of national associations of the various professional classes, each of which shall elect delegates to a central bureau which is to direct and co-ordinate the effects of "intellectuals" in the direction of reforms.

Chinese Plotting Revolution.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—Dispatches from Manchuria indicate that the belief prevails there that a revolt will soon occur against the Chinese dynasty and that it is being promoted by Chinese liberals.

Spotted Fever Spreads.

Connellsville, Pa., April 13.—An epidemic of cerebro spinal meningitis or spotted fever has broken out in Dunbar, this county, and the citizens are greatly alarmed. Schools of the town have been closed.

HAVING GOOD TIME

Cross Country Breakneck Rides and Foot Races Engross the President.

Frederick, Okla., April 13.—The weather is ideal for President Roosevelt and his party of hunters in the Big Pasture. The party goes out about 6:30 each morning and returns to camp about 11 for dinner. Fresh horses are saddled by the attendants and the start is made about 1:30 in the afternoon. One of the diversions was a series of foot races in which the president also participated. Here he failed to distinguish himself, however.

The dogs are so accustomed to pursuing wolves that they left a wildcat, which was being pursued in order to chase their more accustomed prey. Last night a raccoon was caught in Deep Red Creek and is now in camp as one of the live trophies of the chase.

In one of the runs a wolf was chased over the hills and through creeks and timber for ten miles. Only the hardest and best riders could keep up such a terrific pace as this for any distance. When the wolf was finally captured there were but four of the party within sight of the animal, Bob Burnett, Guy Waggoner and John Abernathy, three old-time cowboys, and the fourth member was President Roosevelt.

GETTING AT IT

Equitable Society Asked to Furnish Some Leading Information.

New York, April 13.—A complete record of all the financial transactions of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, its relations to other corporations and a full list of the society's employees, including all its officers, together with a statement of the salaries and emoluments received by them, is asked of the society's president, Jas. W. Alexander, in a letter sent to him by Henry C. Frick, chairman of the investigating committee appointed by the directors. In asking for the information Mr. Frick writes that the committee does not intend to limit its investigations to the questioning of the society's officers, but that a separate and independent examination will be made by the committee and its experts.

CARRIED THOUSANDS IN RAGS.

Des Moines, Ia., April 13.—With certificates of deposit in Des Moines banks for $7,000 and bills worth $125, wadded together in the lining of his coat, William H. Talmohlen of this city was killed while picking up kindling, presumably for a living, in the railroad yards here. He was dressed in rags and had for months been a frequent visitor to the yards, where he picked up coal and wood which he either sold or burned.

'TISN'T SO, SAYS ERLANGER.

New York, April 13.—The charge made by David Belasco, the playwright, in the trial of his suit to establish his assertion that Klaw & Erlanger were his real partners in the copartnership that starred David Warfield in "The Auctioneer," that Abraham L. Erlanger had threatened to drive him out of the theatrical business and crush him, was denied by Erlanger on the stand in the hearing of the case.

TERRY MCGOVERN BREAKS DOWN.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 13.—It is believed that Terry McGovern is suffering from a serious brain disorder. He is being carried to New York to be placed under the care of a specialist. His nervousness bordering on prostration continues, and he is a very sick man.

MORE ROYALTY AT ALGIERS.

Algiers, April 13.—The British consul has been informed that King Edward and Queen Alexandra will come here on Friday for a short visit.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

President Castro has left Caracas for a month's trip in the interior.

The New York stock exchange will suspend operations on Good Friday.

A recent hurricane near Tahiti and north of there caused much damage to shipping.

The white people of Coffeyville, Kan., say they are determined to rid the town of bad negroes.

The Ohio Republican state central committee has decided to hold the state convention at Columbus on May 24 and 25.

Postal receipts in March this year in the fifty largest cities show an increase of $58,000 over the same month last year.

Another Zemstvo convention has been called in Moscow May 8 in which representatives of the nobility also will participate.

The St. Louis flyer on the Big Four was wrecked at Bellfontaine, Ohio, and half a dozen persons were more or less seriously hurt.

Official denial is given to the report that the Russian government is contemplating the issue of another internal loan at present.

Figures giving the foreign commerce of the principal ports of the world shows that London leads with a total of $1,304,754,181.

The Hippodrome, New York's newest and largest place of amusement, was opened to the public last night, and every one of the 5,200 seats was taken.

The Central Leather company, with an authorized capital of $80,000,000, has been incorporated at Trenton, N. J. The company is to manufacture and deal in leather.

Extraordinary Censorship Exerted by Medical Society at Lafayette.

A CURB TO AMBITION

Physician Whose Name Was Publicly Mentioned in Connection With Operation Under the Ban.

MEDICAL CENSORS CONSIDER IT THE UNPARDONABLE OFFENSE TO "GET INTO PRINT."

Lafayette, Ind., April 13.—Because he told of an operation he had performed on a club foot, Dr. U. A. Lyle, a young physician of this city, may be expelled from the Tippecanoe Medical Society on the recommendation of the censors, Drs. Beasley, Hillis and Reser, who are delegated by the society to inquire into all press publications in which doctors' names are mentioned.

Dr. Lyle was put on trial for his "offense" and was found guilty, and at the next meeting of the society it is expected drastic action will be taken, not only in his case, but in the cases of other "offenders" among the practitioners of the county.

The medical society has made it a rule that any physician who allows his name to get into print is guilty of a violation of the code of ethics, and he will be tried and punished accordingly.

THEY KNEW THEIR CUSTOMERS.

Kansas City, April 13.—The American Mercantile association, alleged to be a "get-rich-quick" concern, with offices in a downtown office building, has been closed and this notice is posted on the door: "Good-by, suckers, good-by." The losses to credulous investors will aggregate thousands.

DUKE LIKES AMERICA.

New York, April 13.—The Duke and Duchess of Manchester, accompanied by Eugene Zimmerman, have arrived in this city from Cincinnati. It is stated that the duke, after a trip abroad to settle up affairs on his Irish estate, will return to this country to engage in the railroad business.

GOVERNOR HANLY has reapointed General Oran Perry Quartermaster General of Indiana. General Perry served through the civil war having gone out as a private in company B, Sixteenth Indiana, which was organized at Richmond. D. W. Johnson, of this city, served in the same regiment.

TOM Taggart is about to be shut out from the Jefferson dinner at New York and if that should happen there will be more trouble in the democratic family. Judge Parker is to be there and make a speech and he may have something to say about campaign management which he would not say before Taggart.

If THE railroad companies and other corporations who are disposed to continue their aggressions have the slightest idea that this is not making radicals and even outspoken revolutionists who will come day put a restriction upon these same corporations in one way or another, let them study the drift of things somewhat and they will very readily see that in the end it will be a choice between the measures of regulation now proposed in the nation and in the various states and something infinitely worse. This is inevitable as the proverbial decree of fate is supposed to be.

THERE is one thing to be said of the president and his hunting expedition. We have never had a president whose expeditions of this sort would command more general approval. This is true because of his personality; because he has already demonstrated that he knows how to build himself up physically and because the people want him to save all the vitality he has, for there will be use for him after he retires from the presidency of the government. It has been suggested that he may become president of Harvard University at the close of his term, but whatever may happen as to that, everybody knows that he will be busy and most of the time at something useful, and that he will bring utility even out of his hunting trips.

MARRIED.

HOTZEL-CLARK.

Jacob Hotzel and Miss Dora Clark, both former residents of Seymour, were married in their new home at Anderson, Indiana, where both have been working. Wednesday morning, April 12, at 9:30. The bride is a most highly respected daughter of Chas. Clarke, an employee of the Band Saw Mill of this city, and has a number of friends at this place, where she was formerly employed in the Seymour Woolen mill. The groom is the son of Philip Hotzel, the blacksmith, and is a model young man. Mr. and Mrs. Hotzel came to this place Wednesday evening and an elaborate supper was served to their immediate relatives at the home of the groom's father on South Poplar Street. They will remain here for a few days before returning to Anderson, where Mr. Hotzel has employment with the Pioneer Pole and Shaft Factory.

IN A FEW DAYS

We shall have with us again that brightest, gayest season of the year—that season that bespeaks flowers and blossoming trees and twittering birds; the season of change from the old to the new.—Easter.

The Gold Mine.

We have searched the markets well. In the Millinery Department we have covered the wholesale field for new styles, new shapes and new effects, and from the modest street hat to the ultra-modest dress article. We have endeavored to combine in the highest possible degree—style, workmanship, quality and price. There is no recent style which is not represented in our Hat Department—no effect which our trimming force can not produce.

In the Dress Goods Department our shelves seem alive with their colors and shades which, blending and contrasting, seem to be holding an Easter Celebration in this department itself. We have earnestly endeavored to secure our share of seasonable merchandise in this line and believe we have succeeded.

In the fashionable cloths—Mohairs, Eolennes, wool and Silk Voles—throughout the entire line of fashionable fabrics we are fully prepared to meet your every want, and at prices that are hardly in keeping with the splendid offerings in this line.

A very recent New York invoice enables us to show you a line of Silks in Waistings and Suitings which is absolutely beyond any local competition. The late shades which have appeared within just the last few weeks are here fully represented.

In the Wash Goods Department is the largest and most select line in Southern Indiana. Mercerized fabrics in Waistings and Suitings that rival Silk itself are here in Mohairs, Etamines, Shantungs, Silk, Gingham, Zephyrs and Muslins, Eolennes, Soisettes and Fil de Soies. In White Goods our line is excellent, and new patterns are added thereto almost daily.

Our Ready-to-Wear Department is fully able to cater to the most fastidious trade, and welcomes inspections and comparisons with other lines. Dozens of new suits fresh from Eastern designers are now in; these are not on sale at fancy prices, but on the basis of regular stock.

Shirtings in every conceivable style and effect are here—all that you have seen in the Fashion Journals and scores of others besides. In this department your attention is invited to our extra large invoice of Ready-to-Wear Skirts—these at prices which are ridiculous for this season of the year.

Over the entire store are scattered new things for Easter tide. There are new designs in belts, in ladies' and children's neck-wear, in hand bags, in hosiery novelties in the thousand and one things which go to complete the feminine wardrobe of necessities and luxuries.

There are many new things in Muslin underwear which you most certainly must appreciate if you but see them.

And just now the dutiful house-wife is busy planning for the renewing and beautifying of the home. Let us say that in our basement we are well stocked with all sorts of conveniences to help you in this work—from carpet tacks to ready mixed paints. Here also is our big line of glassware, china, tin, and granite wares, etc.

In our Carpet Department is every weave and design known to the carpet and matting trade. Our orders which were placed six months ago, before the recent advance in raw material in this line, enable us to undersell all competition in carpets, mattings, rugs, linoleums and oilcloths.

Don't forget that our big stock and large purchasing power in lace curtains, door panels and window shades means a saving to you.

Ringling Bro's Excursions.

Special excursion rates have been arranged for by the management of Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows, and those who wish to go to Columbus where the great circus exhibits on Friday, April 28, can do so at very little expense. This will be the only point in this vicinity where the show will exhibit this season, and no one should miss the opportunity to witness it. Ringling Brothers' circus has been the leading arena exhibition of America for years, but the show has never been permitted to rest upon its reputation. Although it long ago passed the point of competition, every season sees a greater and grander show. This year's performance is entirely new, and entails the combined efforts of 375 wonderful artists in the equestrian, gymnastic, acrobatic and aerial line, together with fifty famous clowns and hundreds of lesser lights. Six hundred and fifty horses are used and a marvelous trained animal department is presented. The circus this season is greatly enlarged by the spectacular production of The Field of the Cloth of Gold. The vast menagerie has among hundreds of features the only living pair of giraffes, the first baby elephant successfully bred and reared in America, and the only rhinoceros in captivity. There is an gorgeous revival of the Roman hippodrome races, and many other stupendous features in this great circus. Circus day opens with a brilliant street parade three miles in length

NERVOUS AND DESPONDENT

Mrs. R. T. Brockette, a Prominent New York Society Lady tells The W. F. Peter Drug Co. What Rexall Mucu-Tone Did For Her.

Mrs. R. T. Brockette, well known in foreign, as well as American society circles, writes the W. F. Peter Drug Co. that Rexall Mucu-Tone has overcome her prejudices against patent medicines.

"I have received so much benefit from the use of your Mucu-Tone that I feel I ought not to hesitate in an acknowledgment of my debt to you. In 1900 I went abroad for my health, spending three years in France, Switzerland, Italy, Holland and England. I was quite weak, and the slightest effort brought on a fit of trembling, so that I had to travel very leisurely. I took the opportunity to consult several good physicians in Paris and London, but the benefit I received from their treatment was but slight and temporary. Returning to New York last fall, I found myself still an invalid.

"My appetite failed, I could not sleep, I had severe headaches and the result of any little shopping trip was always complete prostration. The doctors thought me suffering from nervous debility and malnutrition.

"A short time ago a friend recommended your Rexall Mucu-Tone to me very highly. I had never thought of using a 'patent medicine,' having a natural prejudice against them. But I was so weak and sick and my friend's belief in the medicine so strong that I bought my first bottle of Mucu-Tone then and there.

"Since then I have bought four other bottles and am practically a well woman. I eat heartily, sleep soundly and am no longer nervous and pale, but a hearty, active woman. If my case was as the doctors said, one of nervous debility and malnutrition, then I am sure you have in Mucu-Tone a wonderful remedy for this condition. Everyone notices the change in me and compliments me on my good health.

"Grateful for your helpful and healing medicine, I remain, etc., Mrs. R. T. Brockette, 215 West 116th St., New York City.

"There are many Seymour people afflicted just as Mrs. Brockette was, who if they would only overcome their prejudices against patent medicines, could be cured in a few weeks time," says Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. "We have any number of our prominent people tell what Rexall Mucu-Tone has done for them, but when we suggest their giving us a statement to that effect, they always say no, they wouldn't want anyone to know that they used a patent medicine. That's why you constantly hear that only poor people use patent medicines but it is a mistake. We have as many customers among the society people for Rexall Mucu-Tone as we do among the working class, and we keep them all through the merits of the preparation. We have that confidence in it that we willingly guarantee a fifty cent trial bottle will produce beneficial results or we will refund the purchase price to any customer."

ALLIANCE ASSURED

Church Union Proposition Secures Majority of Votes.

Nashville, Tenn., April 13.—Cumberland Presbyterian headquarters here announce that the proposition for union with the Northern Presbyterian church has received the requisite 53 votes, with others of the 114 presbyteries of the Cumberland Presbyterian church yet to hear from. The deciding vote was cast by the Pennsylvania Cumberland Presbyterian presbytery. It is said that the Northern Presbyterian church is voting for union in the ratio of 10 to 1. It has already settled the question of separate presbyteries for negroes.

The general assemblies of both churches will meet on May 17, the Cumberland Presbyterian in Fresno, Cal., and the Presbyterians at Winona Lake, Ind. The votes will be declared in both. Friends of union, however, do not expect that union will be actually perfected in less than two years, considerable time being required to perfect the details.

They Lacked Circumspection.

Shoals, Ind., April 13.—If the cracksmen who attempted to rob the post-office safe in this city had used a little more circumspection, their efforts would have been rewarded. Deputy Postmaster Shirley noticed a stranger in the streets who aroused his suspicion, and, upon closing the office at night, he took the paper money home with him, while the silver money, amounting to $200, was placed in a paper sack and thrown into an empty mail pouch lying near the safe. The cracksmen worked on the safe and went unrewarded.

Governor the Guest of Honor.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 13.—Governor J. Frank Hanly was the guest of honor last night at a "dollar dinner" given by the Terre Haute Commercial club. Four hundred men prominently identified with the industrial and commercial development of western Indiana attended. William C. Ball presided.

Clearing the Atmosphere.

Philadelphia, April 13.—Following the newspaper charges of fraudulent transactions by certain members of the Consolidated Stock Exchange of Philadelphia, four members of the board of governors have resigned, two members of the exchange were expelled; another resigned and one was suspended.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Ia. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by C. W. Milhous.

WOODMEN

Will Take a Battalion Out of Seymour to Milwaukee.

The Seymour Camp of Modern Woodmen is making elaborate preparations for their trip to the Head Camp at Milwaukee in June. The members of the local Camp have been talking up this matter for weeks and are getting more and more enthusiastic as their plans mature.

It is the purpose to take a full battalion of uniformed men out of Seymour to Milwaukee.

This will be four drill teams, seventy men in number besides the officers. Others who are not members of the battalion will go, also a delegation of Royal Neighbors will be with the party. This is an undertaking that no single camp in the state has previously carried out, but the local Camp is able to see it through. Seymour will compete for some prizes at Milwaukee.

The annual state Log Rolling will be held in Seymour in September and the boys are also preparing for that and will make it a great event.

Bradley's Explanation.

Since Ed. Bradley was brought back from Remington to answer to the charge of unlawfully making away with a horse and buggy belonging to William Grigsby, of Crothersville, he has an explanation. Bradley says that just a few days after he started out with the rig canvassing, the horse and buggy were stolen from him and that he was unconscious for three days afterwards. He says he became alarmed and feared to return without the rig. He went farther away and sought employment. He found work on a farm eight miles from Remington where he thought he would not be found. He is past fifty years of age.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

The official call has been issued for the seventh biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen which will convene in Buffalo May 15. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was organized at Oneonta, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1883, and in the twenty-two years of its existence it has probably as much to its credit as has any labor organization of the country.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube be restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten, are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Osteopathy.

Mrs. J. B. Foraker, wife of U. S. Senator of Ohio, said regarding Osteopathy:

"If Dr. A. T. Still discovered nothing new in medical science but what he has done for women, his name would go down the ages as the greatest physician of any age and one of the historical benefactors of the race. His system has made it possible for woman to escape most of the ills which she has been supposed traditionally to be condemned to suffer; he has made it possible for her to approach maternity in calm tranquillity, having assurance that its pains will be almost entirely overcome; and he has demonstrated that women need not spend their lives nursing functional arrangements without finding succor. Who before has done so much in medicine?"

Dr. H. M. Dawson is a graduate under Dr. Still, and during the past month has demonstrated to many sufferers in Seymour that Osteopathy will do all that is claimed for it. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

On account of the great merit and popularity of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for Coughs, Colds, and Lung Trouble, several manufacturers are advertising imitations with similar sounding names with the view of profiting by the favorably known reputation of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR.

DO NOT BE IMPOSED UPON

We originated HONEY AND TAR as a Throat and Lung Remedy and unless you get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR you do not get the original and genuine.

Remember the name and insist upon having FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. Do not risk your life or health by taking imitations, which cost you the same as the genuine.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is put up in three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00.

Prepared only by FOLEY & CO., 92-94-96 Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY COX PHARMACY COMPANY.

HAS HISTORIC PRECEDENT

Governor Wants No Lean and Hungry Cases About Him.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—There has hardly been a single caller at Governor Hanly's office during the last three days who has not attempted to make some facetious remark concerning the size of Frederick Gemmer of Williamsport, the new private secretary and Union Banner Hunt of Winchester, who has just retired from that position. Hunt is still about the office assisting Gemmer in getting a line on his new duties. Gemmer is almost as large as Hunt who generally tips the beam at about 250 pounds. Gemmer, however, modestly refrains from attempting to steal any glory from his predecessor. He says that Hunt is a trifle heavier. Most of the callers remark that the governor certainly has a fondness for large men to guard the outer doors to his sanctum, but this has been said so often now to the two men that it has become a stale chestnut. Gemmer is catching on to his new position and promises to be a good man there.

The reappointment of Oran Perry of this city as quartermaster general of the Indiana national guard was announced today by Governor Hanly. Perry was a colonel in the civil war and has been quartermaster general for several years. He was a candidate for adjutant general, to which position John Ward of Monticello was reappointed a few days ago. The appointment of police judges for the following cities has also been announced: Geo. Fender, Logansport; Perry J. Freeman, Richmond; Blanchard Horn, Anderson; Marshall Williams, Marion; Edwin J. Bower, Michigan City; Thos. B. Coulter, Vincennes; Edward M. White, Muncie; T. S. Gerhart, Kokomo. Judges will be appointed within a day or two for New Albany and Jeffersonville. These appointments were made under the municipal code adopted at the recent session of the legislature, and the men will take office as soon as the acts are promulgated. They will serve until the first of next year, when their regularly elected successors will take hold. The salary is according to the size of the city, the minimum being $1,500 a year. No judges were appointed for cities having special charters. It is understood that Governor Hanly made a special effort to find men who will help him carry out his policy of enforcing the laws to the letter.

There is no abatement of the effort on the part of his friends to obtain the release of Walter Brown of Elkhart, who was sent to the federal prison for alleged complicity in the Elkhart bank wrecking case. Final hearing of the appeal from the district court here to the United States circuit court of appeals at Chicago has been postponed until May 11, when the argument will be heard at Milwaukee. Brown will have to remain in prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., at least until then, as the court denied the motion of his attorney, Vernon Van Fleet, to have him released on bail. Van Fleet presented a letter from Dr. F. F. Thomas, prison physician, showing that Brown's illness is serious. The letter stated that he is suffering from despondency, loss of appetite, emaciation, intestinal troubles, insomnia and consumption. Van Fleet argued that Brown will die if permitted to remain in prison much longer, but the court held that it will not hurt him to stay until the result of the appeal is known.

Many Reported Killed. Vicksburg, Miss., April 13.—Many persons are reported to have been killed and injured in a wreck on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad fourteen miles north of here. The northbound fast passenger train and the southbound passenger are reported to have collided. All physicians in the city have been called to the scene of the wreck.

To Bedford. On account of District Convention of Knights of Pythias at Bedford, Ind., the Southern Indiana Ry. Co. will sell tickets to Bedford and return April 13 and 14, good going on date of sale returning not later than April 15, 1905, at one and one third fare for the round trip.

Taft Will Go It Alone. Washington, April 13.—The text of President Castro's reply to Minister Bowen is now before Secretary Taft, who has determined not to send it to the president, but to take it under consideration himself. It is said that the communication fills the description conveyed by Minister Bowen in his recent cablegram.

THE KANSAS SITUATION

Commissioner Garfield Enters Upon His Investigation.

Topeka, Kan., April 13.—James B. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, who is investigating the Standard Oil company, has held a conference with General Manager H. U. Mudge of the Santa Fe. No statement as to the result of the conference can be secured, but it related to the suit against the Santa Fe alleging conspiracy with the Standard in the matter of oil rates. Mr. Mudge supplied the commissioner with a large amount of information as to rates on oil. Other leading railroad men will meet Mr. Garfield. It is understood that the railway welcomes the opportunity of telling the commissioner of certain things in connection with the freight traffic in the state, as they are anxious to be set right about the matter.

J. M. Parker, secretary of the Kansas Oil Producers' association, is here to confer with Mr. Garfield. He came as the result of a telegram sent him by Governor Hoch. Mr. Parker and Mr. Garfield had a long talk in which the commissioner was promised that the oil men of the state would do all they could to help him.

Commissioner Garfield has decided to divide his investigation into eight departments, each to be covered by answers to ten questions. What these questions are none but Mr. Garfield and his assistants know, and they refuse to tell. Mr. Garfield expects to be able to begin his work in the oil regions the latter part of this week.

Arbitration Declined.

Chicago, Ill., April 13.—An effort made by Mayor Edward F. Dunne to have the controversy between Montgomery Ward and company and their striking employees submitted to arbitration was unsuccessful and the indications are that the struggle will be continued until one or the other of the opposing elements offers to compromise the difficulty.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by C. W. Milbous.

TAKE THE MONEY

Rockefeller's Gift Accepted by Congregational Mission Society.

COULD NOT REJECT IT

Commission Holds That It Would Have Been Wrong to Condemn an Act of Benevolence.

Dr. Gladden, Moderator of Church Council, Takes Different View of the Situation.

Boston, April 15.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has voted to accept the $100,000 offered to the board by John D. Rockefeller. The committee holds that by returning the gift as suggested by the protesting clergymen, the American board would be made responsible not only to those for whose benefit the gift was designed, but also to the present officers' successors. This statement refers to the fact that the board already has used one-half of Mr. Rockefeller's gift, which was accepted on Feb. 14. The committee holds that the action proposed by the protestants, namely the return of the gift, would have been wrong, for it would have expressed "disapprobation and condemnation of a man when he was doing an act of benevolence."

Dr. Gladden's Protest.

Columbus, Ohio, April 13.—When informed of the final action of the prudential committee accepting the Rockefeller gift, Rev. Washington Gladden, D.D., authorized this statement:

"The prudential committee has planted itself upon the broad and intelligible position that all gifts must be received, no matter what may be the character of the giver nor by what immoralities or crimes his gains may have been gathered. No discrimination is henceforth to be made. The pirate or the train robber may bring his booty to the treasury of the American board and it will be thankfully received, and if sufficiently large, will be described as a 'magnificent gift.'"

"By the decision the prudential rejects the word of Him who said: 'I hate robbery by burnt offering,' and reverses the ethical judgment respecting the rewards of iniquity which has guided Christendom hitherto. It openly proclaims that money to which the giver has no moral right may be rightfully given to a missionary society if only his motive is to do good with it; and it assumes the power of judging the motive of the giver. It knows and declares to the world that there can be no motive but that of benevolence in the bestowal of this gift."

"That is a great testimony from such a high authority. From this decision the appeal will now be taken to the conscience of the Congregational churches and the conscience of Christendom."

DECLINES KANT'S CHAIR

Prof. Munsterberg Content to Remain in America.

Cambridge, Mass., April 13.—Prof. Hugo Munsterberg, professor of psychology at Harvard University, announces that he has declined a call to the chair of philosophy and psychology.

chology at the University of Koenigsberg, Germany. The call was extended to Prof. Munsterberg a week ago. He has cabled his declination to the government officials. The chair to which Prof. Munsterberg was called was made famous by Kant the philosopher, by whom it was occupied for thirty years.

A Pertinent Inquiry.

Albany, N. Y., April 13.—Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks has received a formal application to inquire specifically into the charges that the Cambon dinner and the fancy dress ball arranged by James H. Hyde were paid for out of the general funds of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, and into other allegations of extravagance on the part of the management of that corporation. The request came from Senator Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga, as attorney for Charles P. Penfield of that place, a policy holder.
